George Falconer and T. H. Dicken were down from McIntosh yesterday on business.

Immigration Inspector Brown of Albuquerque was in town yesterday, having come up from Willard Sunday.

D. E. C. Williams was in town yesterday from his claim southwest, on business in connection with his desert entry.

Dr. C. V. Cheyney has purchased a ten horse-power Simble Oil Engine, which he will install on his claim near Willard.

I. R. Denton and son came up from Corona Sunday, to visit the family of J. D. Childers. Messrs. Childers and Denton are cousins.

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Amble motored down from Manzano Sunday evening to attend the Children's Day Exercises at the Baptist Church.

Dr. Ewing and wife, mother and sister spent yesterday in the mountains, having made the trip in Meyer's auto. They report a pleasant time.

Neal Jenson, local agent and Wain Willard, traveling representative of the Simple Oil Engine went to the Rickman farm between Estancia and McIntosh yesterday morning to get the new engine in working order.

S. W. Hightower was in Saturday from his farm south west of town and reports the best outlook for crops he has ever had. His beans are especially nice. His potatoes will be a little later than usual owing to the late frost nipping them. He has for several years past had new potatoes on the Fourth of July. His corn is doing well.

Neal Jenson and Wain Willard, upon their return from the Shaw and Rickman wells last evening, reported both Simple Oil Engines in good working order and doing first class work. At the Shaw well, the pit is being deepened, so the pump may be lowered, the engine being used to keep the water out of the way of the workmen.

Frank Laws and family were down from McIntosh Sunday to witness the ball game.

Miles Smith and family will leave within a few days for Morgan Hill, California, where Miles has a position in a printing office. Miles has been in the employ of the News at various times, putting in about two years in all, and has always proven himself a gentlemanly printer, who understands his business. Here's success to you, old boy.

Dr. J. W. McCown and wife of Willard were among the Willard rooters who came up Sunday. They put in a full afternoon, taking in the Children's Day exercises at the Baptist Church before leaving for home on the night train. It is reported that the doctor left some money in Estancia as the result of the game, as he had backed the Willard boys with his coin. He's a live booster all right.

W. W. Wagner, who has been spending the past weeks in San Miguel county, returned to his home at McIntosh Saturday. He was in Estancia yesterday morning, and will leave again today for San Miguel county. He is taking lessons in irrigation and expects to get things in shape to do successful irrigation on his desert claim, a few miles south of Estancia, where he has a good well down and a large reservoir completed.
